A player that pitches three (3) consecutive days (regardless of total number of innings pitched) MUST rest the next day. Once a pitcher is removed from the pitching position, he cannot return to pitch again in that game.

Age Division	1 day maximum to pitch next day	1 day maximum	3 day maximum
8u-12u	4 innings	6 innings	8 innings
13u and up	5 innings	7 innings	10 innings

The Game 7 pitching limits are guidelines for tournament play formats. Coaches should develop several pitchers for their travel teams. Coaches, parents and players must educate themselves to pitcher safety recommendations and guidelines that are available from organizations such as the American Sports Medicine Institute (ASMI). Do not overuse pitchers and rest periods are important. The Game 7 recommendations are that coaches, parents and players develop internal pitching metrics that best fit the individual player's long term development with the team's immediate short term interests second.

* Mound conferences not to exceed thirty seconds and will be limited to the infielders, catcher, pitcher, and one coach. The umpire will have the power to call "Play Ball" after a reasonable amount of time.

The following rule pertains to the visit of the manager or coach to the pitcher:

a. This rule limits the number of trips a manager or coach may take to one visit per pitcher per inning.

b. If a coach makes a second trip to the same pitcher in the same inning, that pitcher must be removed and cannot be brought back in as a pitcher for the remainder of that game. The removed pitcher may remain in the game at another position.

c. The manager or coach is prohibited from making a second visit to the mound while the same batter is at bat.

d. If a pinch-hitter is substituted for this batter, the manager or coach may make a second visit to the mound but must remove the pitcher.

Bat Restrictions:

7u-13u: No restrictions on weight/length. Bat must be a baseball bat (small or big barrel) with a BPF 1.15. Wood bats are allowed. 14u and older: Wood bats are allowed. MUST use BBCOR. -3 weight/length ratio only. All -3 bats must be stamped BBCOR.

Batting and Re-Enter:

Team can elect to: bat 9

bat 10 with EH

bat 9 with DH

bat 10 with EH & DH (still only batting 10)

bat entire roster

The coach has the option of using the Designated Hitter (DH) or the Extra Hitter (EH) or using both the DH and/or the EH. Both must be identified prior to the start of the game.

Note: The DH may play defense; however, the role of the DH would be eliminated for the remainder of that game. The DH is locked into the batting order. Once the starting player bats for the DH, this terminates the DH role for the remainder of that game. Any pinch hitter or runner will assume the role of the DH when used.

Note: The EH may play defense. The EH must remain in the same position in the batting order for the entire game; however, defensive positions can be changed. The EH may be substituted by a pinch hitter or runner, who then becomes the EH.

Note: The starting DH and the starting EH can re-enter once.

Teams may start an official game with an eight (8) player lineup. An out shall be declared for the ninth (9) position in the batting lineup each turn at bat. A ninth player may be added to the bottom of the batting lineup as soon as they become available.

When batting a continuous roster or when subs are no longer available, if a player has to leave the game due to an injury, illness, or ejection, his spot in the line-up will be an out every time he is due to bat.

Note: Automatic Out: The opposing team with two outs cannot intentionally or unintentionally walk or intentionally or unintentionally hit a batter with a pitched ball, in order to get to the automatic out that was created by the vacant spot in the batting order. If the previous batter is walked or hit by a legal or illegally pitched ball, the vacant spot is skipped, the automatic out is waived, and the next batter is the player whose name follows the vacant spot in the batting order. This only applies when there are two (2) outs.

Starters may re-enter only one time in original batting order.

Intentional Walks: Coach must tell home plate umpire and point to first. No pitch has to be thrown.

Courtesy Runner:

A courtesy runner may be used for the pitcher and/or catcher of record at any time during the inning. Coaches are encouraged to use this rule to speed up the game and increase participation.

- a. The courtesy runner must be a player not in the lineup.
- b. If all players are in the lineup, then the last recorded out shall become the courtesy runner.
- c. No appearance or removal will be charged against either player.
- d. The courtesy runner is in the game when he has taken his position on the base and the home plate umpire puts the ball in play.

Note: Using the wrong courtesy runner is an appeal play and may result in the courtesy runner being called out.

Penalty: If the incorrect courtesy runner is discovered to have taken his position on base, the opposing coach must appeal prior to the next play or attempted play for the runner to be called out. If the incorrect courtesy runner is discovered any time after the next play or attempted play, the correct courtesy runner will take the position on base with no penalty.

COACH PITCH CONDENSED RULES:

Batters shall get 6 pitches, or 3 strikes. If the 6th pitch is a foul ball, the batter shall receive an additional pitch or pitches until the ball is hit fair or the batter's turn at bat is completed.

7 runs limit per team per inning.

Base runner(s) may not leave their base until the ball is hit.

No infield fly rule.

No bunting.

No DH in Coach Pitch.

No Intentional Walks in Coach Pitch.

Coach Pitcher must pitch with one foot inside the circle. He must leave the field immediately when ball is put in play. The pitching coach shall not verbally or physically coach while in the pitching position- (shall not tell batter to swing or not to swing).

The defensive player listed as pitcher shall not leave the pitching circle until the ball is hit. PENALTY: The play continues and after the play has ended, the offensive team has the option of taking the result of the play or no-pitch.

A courtesy runner may be used for the catcher of record at any time during the inning. Coaches are encouraged to use this rule to speed up the game and increase participation.

- a. The courtesy runner must be a player not in the lineup.
- b. If all players are in the lineup, then the last recorded out shall become the courtesy runner.
- c. No appearance or removal will be charged against either player.
- d. The courtesy runner is in the game when he has taken his position on the base and the home plate umpire puts the ball in play.

A courtesy runner may be used for the catcher of the previous inning only. If the team batting has not played defense yet and a courtesy runner is used, then the player that was run for must assume the catching position.

Note: Using the wrong courtesy runner is an appeal play and may result in the courtesy runner being called out.

Penalty: If the incorrect courtesy runner is discovered to have taken his position on base, the opposing coach must appeal prior to the next play or attempted play for the runner to be called out. If the incorrect courtesy runner is discovered any time after the next play or attempted play, the correct courtesy runner will take the position on base with no penalty.

Each team on defense will field 10 players consisting of 6 infielders and 4 outfielders. The outfielders must stay in the outfield until the ball is hit. NOTE: Teams may start with 9 players; however, they must play with all infielders including the pitcher. If a team drops below 9 players, the game will be forfeited.

When a batter throws/slings the bat; the team will be issued a warning. The second time it occurs, that batter is declared out. The ball becomes dead and base runners must return to the base last legally occupied at the time of the infraction.

The Youth Pitcher must wear a helmet and/or safety mask and stand on either side of the adult pitcher.

Coaches have the option to play 10 players or the entire line-up.
